

Arden Spelling Bee

To improve children's spelling this year, Arden held its annual Spelling Bee competition which consisted of a set of fun rounds which children needed to surpass to get to the grand finale.

Each year group practiced their common exception words and surprised their teachers with their spellings. The winners from each year group received Spelling Bee trophies to recognise their efforts and achievements.

